

SAH/SCC is a 501c 3 nonprofit organization dedicated to providing its members with opportunities to learn about and experience the rich architectural heritage of Southern California and beyond. Our volunteer board members create tours, lectures, travel tours, and other events that explore the ideas behind the architecture as well as the buildings that result from them. From modern to craftsman, from Spanish Colonial to contemporary, our programs are the best-kept secrets in Southern California!

A 'Brand' New Library Awaits

Stay tuned for more details of SAH/SCC's July tour and discussion on the restoration of Glendale's Brand Library & Art Center. The original home of Leslie C. Brand was designed by Nathaniel Dryden in 1904, and has just enjoyed an exterior and interior renovation by Gruen Associates. Headed by Debra Gerod, FAIA, the restoration included uncovering and rehabilitating the original hand-painted ceilings, recreating original door and window openings, and bringing back into prominence the Mansion's original character. Members of the restoration team will discuss the process at an SAH/SCC tour and talk in July. More info to come in the July/August SAH/SCC News.
